MU was founded in 1839 and is the oldest state university west of the Mississippi River. The main University building which housed the administration, library, and classrooms, was destroyed by fire in 1862. The Columns, all that remain of Academic Hall, are the symbolic center of campus.

After the fire, an effort was made by other towns to have the University moved to their location. However, Columbia citizens helped raise raise funds to keep the University in their city. Jesse Hall, the present administration building, was completed in 1866. It is the 17 building surrounding Francis Quadrangle are on the National Register of Historic Places. Today with more than 35,000 students and 18 schools and colleges, MU is a land-grant institution that emphasizes service to citizens and Missouri's major public research university.
