In developing a master plan for the University for the 1995-96 academic year, the committee pursued two goals:

1. To build upon the 1988-90 master plan.
2. To develop a comprehensive plan that is consistent with University goals for improving scholarship, research, and service, and for advancing the University's mission.

The master plan was developed by the University Planning Committee, which includes representatives from all University departments and external agencies, such as the American Association of University Professors, the American Federation of Teachers, the American Association of University Administrators, and the American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees.
